Resolution to Support San Francisco Mime Troupe National Tour in Conjunction with 100th Anniversary of the Triangle Fire

Whereas, 2011 will be the 100th anniversary of the Triangle Fire in New York City which killed dozens of mostly women garment workers who were locked in their building and could not escape the fire; and

Whereas, in conjunction with this commemoration the San Francisco Mime Troupe www.sfmt.org which is an Tony award winning Equity union theatrical group is proposing a national tour of the United States in conjunction with this historic event; and

Whereas, this years San Francisco Mime Troupe play “Posibilidad, or Death of the Worker” is about the struggle of garment workers in the US and Argentina; and

Whereas, The importance to commemorate this event and to educate workers today in America about labor’s history of struggle for workers rights and health and safety on the 100th anniversary is critical; and

Whereas, the issues of 100 years ago are still relevant to workers in the United States today who face attacks on their jobs and health and safety rights,

Therefore be it Resolved the San Francisco Labor Council endorses the national Triangle Fire Commemoration Tour of the San Francisco Mime Troupe and encourages trade unions and all unions to contribute and support this tour to make it a success.

Submitted by David Williams, SEIU 1021, and adopted unanimously by the San Francisco Labor Council on September 27, 2010.

Respectfully,

Tim Paulson
