30 seconds:

The Tony Award-winning San Francisco Mime Troupe opens its 59th season of Free Shows in Bay Area Parks with their new 2018 show: Seeing Red: A Time-Traveling Musical.

In Seeing Red: A Time-Traveling Musical a disillusioned Trump voter travels back in time to 1912, when her town was a hotbed of the American Socialist party, and realizes that she may have more in common with those blue-state progressives than she previously thought.

Seeing Red is performed in the characteristic and unique quick-change, singing & dancing, political style of the SF Mime Troupe

The shows runs July 4 – Sept. 9

The San Francisco Mime Troupe creates and produces socially relevant theater; done as political satire and is anything but silent. Winner of three OBIE awards and a Tony Award for Excellence in Regional Theatre, the San Francisco Mime Troupe, creates plays that make sense out of the headlines, with close-up stories that make audiences feel the impact of political events on their personal lives. The NY Post called the Mime Troupe “America's oldest and finest street theater”. To make this work accessible to the broadest audience possible, the Mime Troupe performs as a regional touring company, presenting their work at a price everyone can afford -- free.

The shows runs July 4 – Sept. 9
