

2012: For the Greater Good, or The Last Election Reviews and Articles:

"Back story: Michael Gene Sullivan on San Francisco Mime Troupe's irrepessible brand of political theater. Seven questions... and answers."

Mercury News - 6/22/12

\(Web Archive Link \)

"As soon as Victor Toman takes the stage as blowhard corporate accountant Jack Badger in San Francisco Mime Troup's For the Greater Good or The Last Election, fans immediately relax, knowing that, for yet another season, San Francisco Mime Troupe is going to deliver the goods."

Theatre Sport - 7/6/12

\(Web Archive Link \)

"An awfully funny show, and its opposite-day conceit ingeniously turns the inherent reductionism of agitprop fables into an object of parody. It's refreshing to know that this time we're supposed to laugh at the good-guys-and-bad-guys simplicity of the tale, rather than suspecting that we're supposed to take that part at least seriously."

Marin Independant - 7/9/12

\(Web Archive Link \)

"The Mime Troupe - funny as ever, and loaded as ever with witty, tuneful songs"

San Francisco Examiner - 7/9/12

"Scathing satire of a culture that lionizes the rich...There's no denying the riotous sense of empowerment in this tribute to our democracy, in all its frailties. Political musical satire has rarely been so infectiously patriotic. Too bad it's only summer because "The Last Election" really makes you want to get out there and rock the vote."

Mercury News / Tri-Valley Nema - 7/19/12

"...a wonderfully engaging piece of leftist evangelism."

East Bay Express - 8/1/12

\(Web Archive Link \)

Could this be our last election?

KALW Public Radio - 8/22/12

\(Web Archive Link \)