

2008: Red State Reviews and Articles:

"...Combines red and blue, truth and unreality, political commentary and incisive wit. The results are delicious. 'Red State' is the ideal election fare - sharp and funny, with just enough bite."

Examiner.com - 7/7/08

\(Web Archive Link\)

"Reclaiming red from the dusty color wheel of history... smart and consistently funny. Brilliantly delivered by a uniformly sharp and charismatic cast - posits FDR's small town America as marooned at Francis Fukuyama's end of history..."

San Francisco Bay Guardian - 7/15/08

\(Web Archive Link\)

"Funny, timely, far-fetched, and packed with sharp political barbs." "Local treasure Velina Brown, as the newly unemployed librarian, kicks the show into high gear with a gospel-infused "Leaving Town."

San Francisco Chronicle - 7/8/08

\(Web Archive Link\)

"The real high point of the show is Pat Moran's score. He has written some great songs about struggling Americans."

SF Theater Examiner - 7/5/08

"The Mime Troupe, we do not do silent mime."

The Cool as Hell Theatre Show, Podcast #174 - 7/3/08

\(Web Archive Link\)