BREAKDOWN - A New Musical

Sometimes it's not all just happening in your mind.

Subject of the show:

In an insane society how can we help those struggling with actual mental illness? And who is driving the country insane? The social worker drowning in the bureaucracy needed to help their unhoused client? The news anchor, who feeds anxiety with "breaking news" of daily atrocities and political scapegoating rather than the real "Who, What, Where and Why?" We will meet them and more in our new comedy musical aptly titled: BREAKDOWN - A New Musical. Sometimes it's not all just happening in your mind.

Short Synopsis:

Yume lives on the streets of increasingly intolerant San Francisco, but that doesn't mean all her issues can be solved by a passionate social worker. In a City that seems to have more paperwork than compassion help is always just around the Kafkaesque labyrinthine corner! But that doesn't mean San Francisco is the hellhole of progressivism up-and-coming Fox News commentator Marcia Stone portrays to the rest of the country. But whether it's an individual, a bureaucracy, or a national sanity, everything is headed for a... Breakdown.

Longer Synopsis:

For most of the citizens of increasingly intolerant San Francisco a young woman like Yume living on the streets seems "crazy," but maybe Yume is just ahead of the curve. Unbalanced? Unhinged? Nuts? In a country that has clearly lost its mind, what do any of those words mean anymore? As her social worker tries to navigate the Kafkaesque labyrinth of city bureaucracy Yume is on her own quest to regain what has been taken from her. But up-and-coming FOX News commentator Marcia Stone has no problem with being at the vanguard of driving the nation around the bend. It's her key to getting a nightly slot on the network, and if she can give her viewers a focus for their fear, a hellhole of depravity and failed policies so much the better! And where better than the filthy, dangerous streets of San Francisco to illustrate for her bosses and audience the depths to which the progressives have dragged us? If only she could find a person on those streets... someone to personify America's...Breakdown.

Character Descriptions:

Marcia Stone - 30's. An up-and-coming star at FOX News, Marcia is slick, smart, and knows that the easiest way for a Black woman to get ahead in modern political commentary is to be a voice of conservatism.

Yume - 20's. Unhoused and suffering from schizophrenia, Yume is trapped between the madness of the streets, the ineffective system that fails to help her, and the demons that pursue her as she tries to solve the mystery of her past.

Saidia - 20's. A social worker. A passionate advocate for the clients, Saidia spends her days struggling against the Kafkaesque nightmare of city bureaucracy in a city that insists it cares.

Felix - 30's. Living on the street since his teens, Felix is the consummate street entrepreneur, constantly trying every trick and scam he can come up with to get on the escalator to capitalist success.

Mr. Steréos - 60's. The owner of a corner store in the Tenderloin. A survivor who has seen it all.

Brad - 40's. A TV news producer

SF Mime Troupe Presents - BREAKDOWN - A New Musical - Summer 2023

Q: Why do you call yourself a Mime Troupe if you talk and sing?

We use the term "mime" in its classical and original definition, "The exaggeration of daily life in story and song." It is a form of popular theater that is as old as the marketplace itself. From the ancient Greek and Roman farces to the Renaissance commedia dell'Arte to modern Chinese Opera, using archetypes comically to illustrate people's issues is a time honored worldwide tradition. Our broadly drawn characters are instantly recognizable allowing the audience to immediately engage in the action. Our work is political satire and anything but silent.

News - SF Mime Troupe 2023:

1. NEW COLLECTIVE MEMBER - The SFMT Collective is pleased to announce the addition of Andre Amarotico as its newest member. Aside from his talents as a gifted performer, Andre is a man of many talents and has already shown himself to be a resourceful and thoughtfully engaged Trouper. Jumping right in, Andre spearheaded the funding, procurement and installation of an HVAC system to offer future live performances and events in our studio. Good natured, generous in spirit and actively informed, Andre is an excellent representative of SFMT values.

2. MURAL RESTORATION ON SFMT BUILDING - Since 1985, the westward facing exterior wall of 855 Treat Avenue in San Francisco's Mission District has been adorned with Para las Rosas / For the Roses, a vibrant mural by the gifted artist Juana Alicia. The Mural marks both the current home of the 64-year-old San Francisco Mime Troupe (SFMT) and that of its predecessor, Fantasy Records, where comic Lenny Bruce and Jazz greats Dave Brubeck, Paul Desmond, Cal Tjader, Vince Guaraldi, Mongo Santamaria and many others recorded. It is a beautiful homage to the place that has produced exceptional music, comedy and theater for over seven decades.

Sadly, over the years, the mural's colors had faded to the point where certain aspects of it were not even recognizable. In 2023 Juana Alicia restored this historic work of art by using newer techniques and longer lasting paint. Juana Alicia's core team included the artist, Juana Alicia, SF Mime Troupe General Manager and Collective member Ellen Callas, SF Heritage's Kerri Young, and SFMT Board Member, Susan Segal. And additional support of Anastacia Powers, Brava for Women in the Arts, and Lanita Henriquez with the Community Challenge Grant.

3. MICHAEL GENE SULLIVAN NEWS - Michael Gene Sullivan is a Collective Member, actor, director, and as Resident Playwright has written or co-written over 30 plays for the San Francisco Mime Troupe. He has also performed with all four of the Bay Area's Tony award-winning theaters: SFMT, American Conservatory Theater, Berkeley Rep., and Theatreworks. He has performed, directed, or written plays for SF Playhouse, California Shakespeare Theater, Denver Center Theatre Company, Marin Theatre Co., Aurora Theatre Co., Magic Theatre, TheatreFirst, Lorraine Hansberry Theater, African American Shakespeare Co., and the SF Shakespeare Festival. Michael Gene Sullivan's stage adaptation of George Orwell's classic dystopian novel 1984 had its world premiere at the Actor's Gang Theatre, under the direction of Academy Award-winning actor Tim Robbins. 1984 has since been produced throughout the USA, as well as in Hong Kong, Australia, and countries across Europe and South America. The adaptation is published in two languages, translated into five, is currently running at the state theatre of Ukraine in Kyiv, and in Fall 2023 will make its Bay Area premiere at the Aurora Theatre.

Michael also authored the critically-acclaimed The Great Khan which had its world premiere at SF Playhouse and San Diego Rep. Michael was awarded the Getting Played: Equity in the Entertainment Industry Award at Stanford University, and was honored as one of TBA's "40 Faces," artists who've made significant contributions to the Bay Area theater community. Michael is also an alumnus of the Playwrights Foundation, a 2022 Creative Work Fund grantee, a Djerassi Arts Fellow, and was awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship for Drama.

4. BREAKDOWN - A New Musical has been made possible by contributions from The Don Stevens Laugh and Love Fund; California Arts Council, Grants for the Arts; and Individual Donors.
